It's all in on the Summer Games' second day

PREVIEW

Welcome to the playoffs.

Things are heating up at the Estevan 2016 Saskatchewan Summer Games with elimination rounds beginning today in female soccer at Cactus Park and Woodlawn Park, archery for compound and recurve individual and team events at the Estevan Archery Club and male and female basketball at Estevan Comprehensive School (ECS). The two-round golf competition also gets underway today at TS&M Woodlawn Golf Club with members of all nine districts set to tee off.

If the colours of gold, silver and bronze strike your fancy, the team relay event at the triathlon competition goes ahead today with competitors splashing past the starting line at 11 a.m., 11:45 a.m., 12:30 p.m. and 1:15 p.m. in the RM of Estevan Aquatic Centre pool. The triathlon team relay medal presentations will run at 3:30 p.m. at the Aquatic Centre.

Another busy day is set for the Athletics competition at the ECS track and field facility beginning with the male javelin final at 9 a.m. The female javelin final follows two hours later before the action really gets ramped up at 2:30 p.m. and 2:45 p.m. with the male and female 300m hurdle finals, respectively.

A total of 15 medals are going to be handed out in athletics today, including the female pentathlon awards. The medal presentation is scheduled to run at 7:30 p.m. at ECS.

A chance to unwind during this second day of hectic sporting activity and before the final medal competitions are held tomorrow morning will be at various fun and cultural events across the Energy City. A buffalo hide tanning demonstration is running from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Estevan Art Gallery and Museum in addition to a sports exhibit. Once the evening rolls around, there will be an athletes' dance held at ECS following today's games.
