Games flooded with medals

The second half of the Estevan 2016 Saskatchewan Summer Games will start with a tidal wave of medals in the water sports.

There will be three medal presentations today in the swimming competition at the RM of Estevan Aquatic Centre with the 200-metre breaststroke, 100m backstroke and 100m backstroke Special Olympics athletes receiving hardware at 5:39 p.m., the 200m freestyle, 50m breaststroke and 50m breaststroke Special Olympics swimmers being awarded at 6:30 p.m. and the 100m butterfly, 4x50m freestyle relay and 4x100m freestyle relay participants earning bronze, silver or gold distinctions an hour-and-a-half later. The first canoe/kayak athletes will also receive some hardware at Boundary Dam during a 4:30 p.m. medal presentation.

On dry ground, the remaining six sports will get underway with ball leading the charge at the Pleasantdale Softball Diamonds where Team Prairie Central will face Team Saskatoon at 8 a.m., which will be quickly followed in the male volleyball competition at 8:30 a.m. with Team Saskatoon playing Team Prairie Central and Team Rivers West matching up against Team South East at Estevan Comprehensive School (ECS) as well as Team Lakeland taking on Team Parkland Valley at Spruce Ridge School.

Eight of nine tennis districts will also hit the courts at 8:30 a.m. at ECS and the Estevan Leisure Centre for a full day of competition, before the male soccer tournament gets underway a half-hour later with Team Saskatoon and Team Lakeland as well as Team Parkland Valley and Team Regina squaring off at Cactus Park and Team South West and Team Prairie Central meeting at Woodlawn Park. The first equestrian event of dressage then goes ahead at the Estevan Exhibition Grounds show ring at 9:30 a.m. with the female volleyball competition finishing off the day with three matches scheduled at 2 p.m. for ECS and Spruce Ridge School.

The heavy competition schedule will make way for a bit of fun this evening at the Athletes Village as a unwinding dance will go ahead tonight at ECS for any athletes looking to cool down from their first day of reaching for the gold medal.

Action On The Pitch
