Featured Volunteer

Joining the 2022 Saskatchewan Winter Games Host Committee has been like gaining a new family. The best part about volunteering is meeting new people, learning from them, and coming together to plan something that will have a positive impact on a part of the community.

The Games hold a special place in my heart having grown up with a father who dedicated his life to sport, culture, and recreation in our province. He was a man who taught me to value health, activity, and the coming together of community. My participation as a volunteer goes beyond putting on a bunch of events with a totally rad group of individuals... it's about supporting an experience that is founded in the values I've held since I was a little girl who looked up to her dad.
