VOLUNTEER INFORMATION

The Regina 2014 North American Indigenous Games (NAIG) is looking for 3500 People including 500 French speaking Volunteers to make these Games a success! We're asking you to help out!

The Regina 2014 North American Indigenous Games will take place in and around the City of Regina on July 20-27, 2014. The event will showcase unity, sport, culture, youth, volunteerism and team work between First Nations, Metis and Non-Indigenous communities.

Volunteering is a fun way to give back to your community while meeting new friends and learning new skills! Come out and show the hospitality Saskatchewan is known for! The Regina 2014 North American Indigenous Games is not just a sporting event, it's a cultural event where people get together to celebrate community and diversity. This enormous event is the largest Sport and Cultural Gathering in North America. With 5000 Athletes and Coaching staff along with thousands of family and friends coming to Regina, we want to show how great the people in this province are! The Games need your time to make this an unforgettable experience for participants, visitors, and the community. Be a part of something Great!
